THE POLICE PLAN TOUR
TO SUPPORT FAST-RISING DEBUT LP

The Police, whose debut A&M album, Outlandos D'Amour, is experiencing tremendous radio response, have booked a 22-date U.S. tour beginning with a three night stand at The Whiskey in Los Angeles on March 1, 2, and 3. The Anglo-American trio is composed of Stewart Copeland on drums, Andy Summers on guitar, and Sting on bass and lead vocals. Their hit single, "Roxanne," began getting radio add-ons as an import and was rush-released with their album in response to nationwide demand.

The Police tour will hit all of the major markets in the United States and wind up with two days at the Bottom Line in New York on April 3 and 4 and two more at the Paradise in Boston on April 6 and 7.

Based in the U.K., the group completed a short U.S. swing last fall which garnered unprecedented response for an act with no domestic product released. They are booked through the Paragon Agency in Macon, Georgia.
