SLOW TURNING JOHN HIATT

US singer/songwriter John Hiatt, who plays LONDON's DOMINION THEATRE on SATURDAY OCTOBER 22nd, makes his A&M single debut on October 10th with "Slow Turning".

The title-track of his much-acclaimed LP debut, released last month, is a Hiatt original produced by Glyn Johns.

It's backed with another self-penned cut from the LP entitled "Is Anybody There?", while a 12 inch adds a previously-unavailable song (recorded at the same time as the LP) entitled "Already Love".

Hiatt, who played a much-acclaimed set at the Reading Rock Festival last month, has released a string of albums since 1974, including "Hangin' Around The Observatory" and last year's classic "Bring The Family".
