

STING! Bring on the Night

Blu-ray Disc

NOW AVAILABLE
IN BLU-RAY

Always expanding the boundaries of pop music, in 1985 Sting embarked on his ambitious, first solo tour. For the first time on Blu-ray, the film Bring On The Night is brought to new life with a 1080p high-definition transfer and digitally remastered DTS-HD Master Audio 5.1 surround and PCM stereo audio. Originally capturing this historic event on film, critically acclaimed director Michael Apted (Coal Miner's Daughter, Gorillas In The Mist) documented the formation of "The Blue Turtles Band" featuring Omar Hakim, Darryl Jones, Kenny Kirkland, Branford Marsalis, Dolette McDonald & Janice Pendarvis. Performances include rehearsals in an historic castle of "Bring On The Night," "If You Love Somebody Set Them Free" and "Fortress Around Your Heart." The band showcases their first live show at the Théâtre Mogador in Paris including "Shadows In The Rain," "Demolition Man" and "Message In A Bottle," among others.

Highlighted in this Blu-ray edition of

Bring On The Night are three music videos featuring "Bring On The Night," "If You Love Somebody Set Them Free" and "Russians." As added bonuses, the Blu-ray includes the original film trailer, the original promotional radio spots and a photo gallery containing Max Vadukul's photography from the film shoot. Experience how Sting pushes the boundaries of both music and film.

"What Apted is attempting, quite shamelessly, is to make us accomplices in this creation, to get to know these musicians individually, to have us begin to worry about the success of their first concert in Paris. He succeeds."

— Sheila Benson, Los Angeles Times

"...inadvertently revealing... seems to change shape as it goes along."

— Janet Maslin, New York Times
